

Virtual Images Announces a New Product - Lenticular T-shirt

SAN BERNARDINO, CA – June 13, 2006 – Virtual Images Unlimited (VIU), the leader of high-quality lenticular products, has announced an addition to its product line, a high-quality lenticular t-shirt - available for retail and promotional sales.

VIU's lenticular t-shirt features custom, high-quality 3D and animated lenticular printing on traditional t-shirts and other apparel products. The t-shirt is available in a variety of sizes and colors and the lenticular can be applied to the front, sleeves, or back of the t-shirt. VIU's t-shirts are perfect for retail outlets as well as special promotions, including new product releases, concerts, universities and schools, amusement parks, and more.

VIU's lenticular showcases eye-catching images and dynamic effects. These spectacular t-shirts, coupled with a stunning silkscreen design, create a unique and effective product that appeals to a wide audience of consumers, kids and adults alike.

Dave Corey, VP Sales states, "VIU's lenticular t-shirt is both an innovative and eye-catching product. This t-shirt will clearly differentiate promoters. The quality and artwork will promote collectability – this is a perfect product for kids or adults, leaving a lasting brand impression."
