

Xtreme Graphics Launches New INFINIDEPH™ Drinkware

November 15, 2006

Inver Grove Heights, Minn. - Xtreme Graphics, the world's leading provider of high-quality plastic printing solutions, has launched a new drinkware product line featuring INFINIDEPH™, its newest patent-pending 3D printing technology. This advancement in printing technology creates a truly eye-catching cup with deep 3D effects, and at an affordable price.

"Our newest INFINIDEPH™ cups feature astounding 3D effects, combining tiled graphical patterns and foreground elements" stated Xtreme's Dave Corey. Corey continued by stating "this advancement in printing technology allows for an ultimate visual effect, both combining the power of depth and animation to stop consumers in their tracks!"

INFINIDEPH™ drinkware by Xtreme Graphics can be offered as collectable items, enhancing the value of a promotion to the end customer. INFINIDEPH™ drinkware is available in all sizes currently offered by Xtreme Graphics, from 12 oz. tumblers to the hefty 52 oz. traveler mug.
